

- 1. Where the user can sign in if they have an account.
- 2. Where the user can create an account and join.
- 3. Shows all customers / rows currently in the database and their information.
- 4. Creates a new customer / row and adds it to the database.
- 5. Reads the customer / row data from the database and displays it.
- 6. Updates the data in the database for the selected customer / row.
- 7. Deletes the selected customer / row from the database.